IN New York's Central Park, a ruffian, type of modern crime, cruelly slashed the face of a young woman, walking with friends. In Ohio George Remus, who shot his wife in cold blood, as she begged for mercy, was set free. A jury said he was insane—that saved his neck. The high court says he is not insane. That gives him freedom, and more opportunity. In Houston, as the Democrats gather, a negro is taken from a hospital bed, by men not masked, and hanged. Let us not criticize others.

SUES FOR $50,000 IN BLAST DEATH

COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—Asking $50,000 damages, Mrs. Albina Frederick, administrator of the estate of her late husband, Henry Frederick, who was killed in a gasoline tank explosion at East Palestine, O., Nov. 5, 1926, today filed suit in federal court here against the American Oil company.

In her petition, Mrs. Frederick names Clarence Laylin, Columbus, as defendant as he is the Ohio representative of the company.

According to the petition, her husband, father of six small children, was killed when he was working as truck driver for the Adamson Oil company at East Palestine. The woman charges that the American Oil company delivered a defective tank car to the Adamson Oil company. The petition said that this tank exploded, killing her husband when workers attempted to repair it with an acetylene torch.

TEN INDICTED IN OHIO FAILURE

MACFARLANE TAKES LEAD IN GOLF TOURNEY

Scholar of Links of 1925 Shoots 38-36-74.

OPEN TITLE PLAY

Jones, Hagen and Others Yet to be Heard From.

By Davis J. Walsh.

OLYMPIA FIELDS, June 22.—Willie MacFarlane, tall, bespectacled scholar of the links, harked back to his championship days of 1925, this morning, when he shot the second round of the national open golf championship in a 38-36-74 to take a nominal lead over the field. His two-day total was 147, but, with entries like Jones and Hagen, yet to be heard from, Willie's ascendancy was not regarded as an altogether permanent one.

At this point MacFarlane was all of four strokes beyond the second man, Frank Ball, Atlanta, who collapsed after his 70 of yesterday to take an 81 for a total of 51. MacDonald Smith also fell away from yesterday's form to take a 77 today for an aggregate of 152 to range into third position. Harry Hampton, Chicago, was fourth at this point with 153.

"Gov. Smith Must be Stopped to Prevent Backward Step on Prohibition," Drys Say

BY KENNETH CLARK.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 22.—Just around the corner from the Rice hotel, where are housed with headquarters of Smith, Reed, Hull and other candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination, is a bare furnished office.

Blazoned across the entrance is a plain sign reading: "Headquarters for all dry forces."

Plastered on the windows are placards, including: "Allegiance to the Constitution." "Buyers make bootleggers." "Lawbreakers must not be lawmak-ers."

"Do not fear politics, make politics fear you."

There was nothing like it at Kansas City. Prohibition leaders, representing the Anti-Saloon league, the W. C. T. U., the Women's National Democratic Enforcement league, and church organizations say there was no need for such a headquarters at the Re-

AL SMITH WILL TELL HOUSTON HIS STAND ON VOLSTEAD LAW

Governor to Decide Plank Question Within 24 Hours.

NO QUIBBLING

Wishes Will be Carried Out by Home Delegation.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 22.—Gov. Al Smith will make a decision at Albany or New York within 24 hours whether his managers are to make a fight at the Democratic national convention for a plank in the Democratic platform calling for modification of the Volstead law.

The governor's wishes on the wet-dry question will be carried out by the New York delegation to the convention, George R. Van Namee, pre-convention manager for Smith, declared here today.

When asked if Governor Smith's latest declaration that he had not changed his views on prohibition meant that the New York delegation would fight for a wet plank in the platform, Van Namee said:

"Governor Smith alone will decide that question. He probably will reach a decision within the next 24 hours and will make known his views to the New York delegation before the members leave for Houston tomorrow. The governor, I expect, will tell the delegates just where he stands on this and other questions."

Favors Law Enforcement.

There seemed to be a feeling at the Smith headquarters that the New York governor would not insist upon the incorporation of a wet plank on the platform, although he personally favors modification of the Volstead law.

The governor's managers are said to feel that because of his record in New York state, he can run on a platform which might contain a plank declaring for rigid enforcement of all laws, even the Volstead act. They point to the fact that Smith called a conference of all law enforcement officials in New York state a little more than a year ago and at that time served notice he would remove any official who failed to enforce every law, including the prohibition.

Issue Stalks Among Delegates.

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES. HOUSTON, June 22.—The prohibition issue stalked like a gaunt gray ghost today among the early arriving delegates to the Democratic national convention.

It was uppermost in everybody's mind; it was goaded about and speculated upon in the hotel lobbies wherever politicians gathered; it figured in every brand of pre-convention speculation.

Only a negligible few of the arrivals, whether delegates or so-called leaders, believe that the fight over the presidential nomination will be anything but short and snappy. The opinion that Gov. Al Smith will be nominated within three ballots is so universal that it is accepted on all sides as a fact, with the possible exception of those who are backing Senator James A. Reed. The Reed managers still grimly insist that Smith isn't nominated—and won't be. But they are getting little encouragement.

Mack Started Row.

The prohibition issue, or rather the question of how the Democrats are to deal with it in their platform next week, has become, for the time being (Continued on Page 8, Column 1)

Four Men Hurt When Work Car is Derailed

Crash Occurs on Railroad at Smith's Ferry When Trailer Strikes Dog—Injured Taken to Hospital.

Four men were injured, one seriously, when a gasoline work car, carrying railroad workmen, struck a dog and was derailed near the Hayes store, Smith Ferry, at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Clarence Baughman, 22, 1520 Commerce street, Wellsville, who was still unconscious at the City hospital at noon, is believed to have been the most seriously hurt. He was injured about the head and spine. Richard Walters, 43, Midway, Pa., was also in the hospital, suffering from sprained ligaments in right leg.

H. A. Chalfant, Crafton, Pa., and W. J. Ardis, Pittsburgh, who received bruises, were discharged from the hospital after receiving first aid. The work car, with a trailer, was enroute to Rochester where the men were to erect automatic railroad signals. About 12 men were aboard the car and trailer when they struck a Shepherd dog belonging to William Adkins, Smith Ferry, derailing both cars. The dog was killed.

Walters, Chalfant and Ardis were brought to East Liverpool on another work car, while Baughman was taken aboard a passenger train.

School Officer's Sedan Stolen.

Chevrolet sedan, 1928 model, belonging to School Attendance Officer Henry Lunsford, Oak street, was stolen while parked in Cherry alley Wednesday afternoon. License number on the car was A-1-789. Police were notified of the theft.

Man Mack's widely discussed statement "reaffirmed Governor Smith's position as a wet."

Farm Relief Issue, Too.

Aside from prohibition, the Democrats, like the Republicans at Kansas City, must hurdle the farm relief issue in drafting the platform.

The foreign relations plank may be a highly contentious issue, but this is expected to be hurdled with a denunciation of the Coolidge-Kellogg foreign policies, particularly in Nicaragua, and an endorsement of the World Court, with no mention of the League of Nations.

Strong language will be used in attacking alleged Republican corruption and incompetency during the last two administrations. A pledge will be made to "clean house and throw out the rascals."

TROLLEY CAR LINE CRIPPLED BY LANDSLIDES AT BRADY CUT

Wellsville Without Water as Main Breaks.

CELLARS FLOODED

Lisbon Street Washed Out; Telephone Service Hit.

Damage estimated at $50,000 was caused by a rain storm which swept the East Liverpool-Wellsville district last night, crippling street car service, flooding streets and blocking highways with earth and rocks from hillsides.

Lisbon Street Caves In.

Wellsville faced a water famine as the result of the breaking of a 16-inch main leading from the storage reservoir in Little Yellow creek, about two miles north of the city.

Lisbon street is closed to all traffic by a washout which occurred at the point where the city is constructing a concrete retaining wall. One concrete mixer fell into the hole, when a section of the street caved in. Another mixer was held at the brink of the hole which extends almost to the Pleasant Heights street car tracks.

Communication between East Liverpool and Wellsville was severed for several hours last night when water from Wells run overflowed Wells avenue to a depth of more than two feet. Several hundred Wellsville residents, who had attended a community picnic at Rock Springs park, were stranded in the Diamond. They reached home late when the traction company pressed motor buses into service. Star the past time flooded streets had a Water at Tenth street and Eighteenth street, Wellsville, overflowed, flooding houses in Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Commercial streets. Sections in these streets were still under water this morning.

Railway Track Washed Out. A long section of the east-bound main line street car tracks, near Brady's cut, were washed out, while slides blocked both tracks at Walkers and at another point between East Liverpool and Wellsville. A large slide which occurred at midnight covered both east and west bound tracks near the "red steps" in Pennsylvania avenue. As a result only partial service is being given today on the Grandview and Chester lines while Pleasant Heights is without transportation service.

Train service on the Panhandle division between Chester and Steubenville have been halted by a slide near Kentworth. Railroad officials expressed the opinion that the tracks would be opened this afternoon. The highway between Chester and Newell is closed by a slip near Newell.

The East Liverpool-Wellsville road is also closed to travel, automobiles being routed over the Campground road. The highway east of Midland is also blocked by a slip.

Park is Flooded. Streams and runs leading from the hillsides were filled to overflowing by the deluge which began shortly before 7 o'clock and continued for almost two hours. Thousands of gallons of water rushing down through Rock Springs (Continued on Page 8, Col 3)

YALE OARSMEN BEAT HARVARD

Win Freshman and Junior Varsity Events.

BREAKWATER, NEW LONDON, June 22.—Yale made a clean sweep of the morning races by following up its victory with the freshman race and the overwhelming triumph of the junior varsity event. As in the freshman race Harvard got the lead at the start but Yale soon evened matters and at the half mile mark was leading by nearly half a boat length.

The blue made it open water at the one-mile mark and from there to the finish it was a runaway affair with Yale increasing its lead all the way to win by better than five boat lengths in a drenching downpour. The unofficial time was said to be ten minutes 40 seconds and eleven minutes and four seconds for Harvard.

Yale took the freshman race by a somewhat narrower margin although the victory was just as decisive. Harvard led off the mark but Yale caught the crimson just before the half mile was reached and at the mile was leading by a length. Harvard fought gamely in the last mile but could not match the speed of the Yale shell which continued to draw away.

BOOM DONAHEY FOR PRESIDENT

COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—Without comment, but with evident satisfaction, friends of Governor Vic Donahey here today received reports from Houston, Texas, which told of an unconfirmed declaration that Donahey's name will be presented to the Democratic national convention next week as a presidential candidate by the Alabama delegation.

On all roll calls, Alabama will be the first state called.

It was indicated, according to this report, that a number of other southern and western states may follow Alabama in supporting Donahey.

Governor Donahey is spending the week-end at his summer cottage at Indian Lake, Logan county.

AKRON DEATH MYSTERY DEEPENS

AKRON, O., June 22.—The mystery deepened today in the case of an unidentified man whose body was found hanging to a limb of a tree near Springfield-center, when Harry L. Dye, Akron and Parkersburg, W. Va., identified by more than a score of persons as the dead man, appeared here "very much alive."

Police declared there was no direct connection between the living Harry L. Dye and the man who detectives believe was slain and then hanged.

MOTOR CAR KILLS PAUL ROUSH, 5

Body of Paul, 5, son of Wesley Roush, former employee of the Crook Furniture company, who was killed in an automobile accident in Steubenville, was taken to New Haven, W. Va., today for burial.

The boy, a grandson of Mrs. William Roush, was struck by car driven by Barry Phillipson, when he ran from behind a parked automobile into the path of the Phillipson machine. The driver was exonerated at a coroner's inquest.

Woman Loses Divorce, Gets Jail Sentence

Mrs. Katherine L. Miller, Cleveland, Pays Penalty for Alleged Perjured Testimony.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—Mrs. Katherine L. Miller, 34, was in Cuyahoga county jail here today serving a 30-day sentence imposed by Common Pleas Judge H. W. Ewing for contempt of court in connection with alleged testimony in her divorce case. Judge Ewing after he bound Mrs. Miller over to the county grand jury yesterday relented later in the day and gave her the month's sentence. The justice set aside the divorce granted Mrs. Miller from her husband, George L. Miller, after he said he discovered that testimony given at Mrs. Miller's divorce hearing was false. "I have learned that the grand jury adjourns tomorrow," Judge Ewing told Mrs. Miller. "I don't want you to stay in jail until the case is heard next term. I have decided to allow you to plead guilty to contempt. I have found that nearly all of your essential testimony in your divorce case is false."

LONDON, June 22.—Many persons were killed and injured when a speeding express train crashed into a locomotive upon a side track at Bolinaes, Sweden, 200 miles north of Stockholm, said advices from Stockholm this afternoon. A Central News dispatch put the dead at nine and the injured at 35. A later Stockholm dispatch to the Evening News estimated the dead at 20 and the injured at 50. Three coaches of the express train caught fire after being derailed. Many victims were burned beyond recognition.

is easily achieved if one follows the simple, well-known rules of conduct. These are honesty, industry, fairness, temperance and courtesy. No man who cultivates these virtues will ever lack a meal. If he is so fortunate as to be born with unusual intelligence he will certainly acquire a comfortable competency provided he does not neglect the other rules. Material well-being of course is not the ultimate object of life.

Spiritual well-being is also demanded by civilized men and women.

Sane Fourth

Insofar as the scope of the authorities permits, and their jurisdiction does not extend beyond the corporation lines, East Liverpool is to have a safe and sane Fourth of July, thanks to enactment of prohibitory legislation which was upheld in a referendum last November.

Declaring that legislation on the municipal statute books shall be rigidly enforced, Mayor Ralph C. Benedict yesterday warned that the sale and use of fireworks is banned in the Ceramic City. Police are to be instructed to arrest all offenders.

Accordingly, there will be no sham battles in Sixth street and the Diamond, so common in bygone years; pedestrians will not be forced to use unfrequented streets to reach destinations in safety, and hospital attendants, physicians and ambulance drivers probably will be given an opportunity to participate in a sensible celebration of the day.

City councilmen, who are not infallible, not infrequently enact legislation that many of their constituents consider a waste of energy and time, but the anti-pyrotechnics ordinance is a sensible law. And it is a safe wager that it will result in a decrease of holiday accidents this year.

However, there is an angle to the problem that will await solution. That is the establishment of mushroom fireworks stands on the outskirts of the city. They spring up along the main highways near zones in which pyrotechnics are prohibited, and they sell fireworks for use in the city.

Of course, sane Fourth laws in East Liverpool and other cities have no effect on the mushroom fireworks dealers. But pending the day when legislators shall see the wisdom of a state law against the fireworks, East Liverpool people who believe in law enforcement, and the rank and file of the community's 25,000 people are law-abiding, should refrain from purchasing the banned articles.

Let's make the Fourth safe and sane.

Home For Diplomatic Corps

The ambassador to France, Myron T. Herrick, is soon to experience realization of his dream of many years of having all the American government offices in Paris housed under one roof instead of under ten, as at present. A contract has been signed and approved for the purchase by the United States of the property of the Parisian club known as the Cercle de l'Union Artistique, a very fine example of the private hotel property surrounded by a beautiful garden so much coveted for residential purposes since the days of the Third Empire.

The plan is to house the offices of the embassy, those of the shipping board, the consulate general and half a dozen other representatives of our government in the newly-acquired property, which will necessarily have to be reconditioned and adapted to the new uses to which it is to be put.

The property is located at the northwest corner of the Place de la Concorde, the world's greatest square. The building fronts on the Rue Boissay d'Anglais, the street one block beyond and separated only by the clubhouse of the Automobile club from the Rue Royale, the avenue leading up to the Church of the Madeleine. The garden is on the Avenue Gabriel and fronts the beautifully shaded park between that avenue and the most beautiful of all thoroughfares, the Avenue des Champs Elysees.

The contracted price is 31,000,000 francs, which in American money amounts to $1,250,000. The club is said to have paid 3,000,000 francs for the property before the war, which at that time meant $600,000. If such was the purchase price of the club, that organization has realized a fine profit, but even at that the United States has entered into a far from a bad bargain for the reason that property in that part of Paris, as in all the finer parts of the city, has advanced immensely in recent years, a reflex of the many new hotels and business properties which have been erected in that part of Paris recently, many of them, large and up-to-date in every way, having gone up during the past eighteen months.

Thus the United States government when a few years ago did not own any property in Paris now has two for the housing of its diplomatic corps, its consular agents and other officials, the other being the ambassadorial residence at No. 2 Avenue d'Iena, purchased by Ambassador Herrick and turned over by him as a gift to our nation.

Kimberly's Costly Streets

Kimberly, in Cape Colony, South Africa, is the earthly city to which the distinction of having diamond-paved streets was given at the time its streets were first paved—a matter which has but recently become a subject of newspaper comment. It seems that the first street improvements of a general scope in that place were made with blue clay taken through mistake from nearby diamond mines. When the mistake was discovered, the paving was carefully scraped up and washed, with the result that diamonds to the value of $5,000,000, some of them as large as hazelnuts were recovered.

Some Ohio street and highway jobs authorized in recent years were costly, but the one-time streets of Kimberly still hold a margin for cost, slight though it may be, over some of the Bucycke highways.

Al and Disraeli

Swinging aboard the Albany-bound train, Gov. Al Smith, presenting his mental reaction to the nomination of Hoover and Curtis, voiced this profound thought: "Well, he ought not to be so hard to beat."

Such an utterance is comparable to that which Disraeli scribbled on a postcard acknowledging receipt from an author of his latest book. "I shall lose no time in reading your valuable book," wrote Disraeli. Gov. Smith could have said: "Hoover won't be hard to beat," or he could have said: "It isn't fair that Hoover should be so hard to beat."

Like Disraeli, he elected to say something that could mean either.

Houston will mean either ratification or terrification for Al Smith.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—A strange treasure vault, stacked with contraband worth more than its weight in gold, is maintained by the prohibition bureau of the treasury department. Its walls of rock and the heavy steel door that swings to a secret combination guard a deadly treasure, more desired by some than precious metals or jewels.

No ordinary booty, this—Spanish doubloons and pieces of eight, or even the banknotes one might expect to find in a treasury vault. The musty, clinging odor that pervades the place, emanating from boxes and cans ranged on shelves that reach to the ceiling and from chests upon the floor, is the enervating odor of the poppy, the contraband, heroin, morphine, opium, and cocaine.

In consignments of varying sizes, dubbed bowling pins or whatnot on suspicious bills of lading, carefully concealed in legitimate merchandise, such as bed posts, or electric bulbs, these drugs, destined for the illicit traffic, sought entry into the United States by way of the smuggling route. They were seized at ports of entry, at stations along the international boundaries, and within the country during raids by federal agents, operating under the Harrison narcotic act, which forbids the introduction of such products into the country except under rigid governmental supervision. The contents of the vault are valued at more than a million dollars.

Along the top shelf are twenty-five great cans, each containing approximately 21,000 grains of morphine in cubes the size of a small lump of sugar. To addicts, who pay usually a dollar a grain, over $400 a pound, for their drug, each of these cans would be worth more than $20,000. In boxes on the floor are tins of black stuff—smoking opium, which might have brought the dealer $200 apiece. Other boxes contain the white powder, cocaine; gum opium; morphine; and heroin in vials, precisely labeled as those on a hospital shelf; doubtful mixtures, drugs that have been cut with milk of sugar, or some other ingredient, by peddlers who wished to increase their profit.

Drugs seized by Federal agents are tested by chemists and the pure product is turned over to hospitals. Derivatives not in a form to be used for medicinal purposes are set to a factory, authorized to produce narcotic products, where the salts are thrown down and purified for legitimate uses. Mixtures which can not be purified and used are burned.

It has been stated frequently that prohibition of alcoholic beverages in the United States has resulted in an alarming increase in the number of narcotic addicts and this number has been estimated at as high as a figure as one million. Official surveys, however, show that the contrary is true. The Harrison Act was passed in 1914 and, since that year, there has been a steady decrease in addiction.

Three surveys, recently made, furnish a reasonably accurate estimate of the number of persons using drugs. One was made by experts of the Public Health Service and the other two were made by Federal narcotic field officers in charge of divisions of the country. These estimates indicate that there are, at present, not more than 100,000 addicts in this country.

Furthermore, officials of the narcotic unit state that, during the year of heaviest opium importation, before there was any law restricting sales, the entire amount brought into this country could not have had 246,000 addicts, assuming that the entire amount was used for addiction purposes.

Under the present system of federal and state control, it is believed that few addicts are being created. This supply for confirmed addicts is so limited that they experience difficulty in securing enough for their physical comfort. The dope peddler is constantly being hunted down by the law and is the most despised of all persons.

Another factor militating against an increase in dope usage is the exorbitant rate charged by the peddlers. By the time illicit morphine and heroin have passed through the many necessary hands on their way to the ultimate consumer the price has increased from $11 or $12 an ounce, the rate asked when they are sold in New York in large quantities, to $437.50 per ounce. An addict consumes from 6 to 18 grains a day.

The first effect of the Harrison Act was to cause large numbers of addicts to seek treatment, due to the difficulty they were experiencing in getting their supply. Most addicts, after being treated, relapse, but it is believed that many among who sought treatment remained cured; certainly those who are fairly normal were permanently cured. The dope addict of today is usually of the psychopathic, delinquent class and spends most of his time in jail.

Q. How many persons had crossed the ocean in a non-stop flight before Lindbergh? W. W.

A. Lindbergh was the fifty-seventh to cross in a non-stop flight. The ZR3, afterward christened the Los Angeles, accounts for thirty-two of the others. Lindbergh, however, made the first non-stop solo flight.

Q. Can one take a course in mountaineering? V. C.

A. Professor Kirtley Mather, director of the Harvard geology department, will give this Summer a course in mountaineering. Students will climb peaks ranging from 9000 to 15,000 feet, study rocks, and take a final examination on the Matterhorn.

Q. In traveling in the East, is it advisable to take hot baths? S. E.

A. Japan is about the only place where a very hot bath will be found invigorating. Whether it is due to the air or the climate the Japanese take baths so hot that one could hardly put a finger in the water. It is not enervating as it is practically everywhere else.

Ritzy Rosalie

It's a question whether Rosalie is holding her coat open to allow the cool breezes to do their work or to display the other side of her reversible coat. To all appearances she is wearing just another black silk coat, but this one is quite different. In the twinkling of an eye Rosalie can reverse it into a smart sport coat printed in the most approved scenic wonders of the world.

Since flowers on the coat are not quite as much in favor as formerly they must have a definite reason for being there. And their latest purpose in life is to be the same kind and color as those posed on the hat.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Thoughts while strolling: More towering "steps" buildings to add to the jagged skyline. Herb Roth, the caricaturist. An embarrassed youth carrying a corset form. Percy Hammond, a Cadiz, Ohio, boy who made good in the city.

Glant Russian doormen who may be grand dukes or Siberian peasants. Street loafers who lean against buildings with a leering insolence. Ragged street gamins who roam in packs and raid fruit stands. Cigarette vending machines that croak "Thank you."

Defeated old men working all day as dishwashers. An Indian medicine show three blocks from Times Square. N. T. G., the radio announcer and Broadway night owl. But a Jersey farmer in off hours.

Old men with blue caps and gray Brannigans form the river scows. Last year's ladies trying pathetically to be ever so roguish. Housewives who buy a quarter of a pound of butter, two eggs and a potato at a time. The moth-eaten tubbed trees in front of green-fronted Italian cafes.

One dollar down old crowns. Radics until they hurt. Shoe shiners who seem always to be lounging in their doorways. A gaping crowd around a wounded bat. Listless children who drag spool boxes along the sidewalk. European medical specialists—For Men Only.

The men with pushed-back hats and busy toothpicks who exchange banter with lunch counter girls. And forget a tip. A taxi driver scouring the neighborhood for change for a $20 bill. The old optimist. Wives who lean out windows and keep an eye on countless husbands on the stoops.

Gene Buck's canary colored motor coat. The private house speakery with a gray-haired woman knitting in a front window. James Gleason, the actor. A street speaker's banner: "Booze and Lose." Shoes named for movie stars. A pair of green lamps that adorn the home of an ex-mayor.

A telephone bureau that may prove a blessing to philandering husbands or wives, although that is not ostensible.

It is about time to drag up a scap box and say a few words to traffic cops who bellow: "I gotta good mind to give you a ticket." My reply, in a thin scared voice, is that they should think up something snappier. There is no rule in the police code preventing originality.

There are more watches per person in New York than in any other city. All this despite the thousand and one street and building clocks all over town. Minutes are precious to New Yorkers, at least they have that idea. And while they use the clocks they want their own time pieces. Probably the most public clock stands the Paramount building tower. The dial is twenty-five feet across, but the largest clock in midtown in the Metropolitan tower which is twenty-six feet in diameter. The largest clock in the world is visible to dwellers on the lower tip of the island, but is across the river in Jersey. This is the famous Colgate timepiece and the dial is fifty feet in diameter. It is electrically lighted and at night detracts from the other electric wonders among these coming up the river on liners.

The New Yorker who owns the greatest watch collection is an insurance executive who possesses 181, more than half of which are of the wrist variety. He was obsessed when a lad to own a gold hunting case watch and never achieved his ambition until after he was twenty-one. When wealth and affluence came he made up for his thwarted longings by buying the finest watches he could find from all parts of the world.

It is about time to drag up a scap box and say a few words to traffic cops who bellow: "I gotta good mind to give you a ticket." My reply, in a thin scared voice, is that they should think up something snappier. There is no rule in the police code preventing originality.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

Tuberculosis has been named the "great white plague." One-tenth of all the deaths in the United States are due to tuberculosis. To say nothing of the broken hearts, the annual economic loss from this cause has been estimated at a billion dollars.

The presence in the body of the germ of tuberculosis is not always followed by the disease tuberculosis. There enters into the matter another factor, and that is the resistance of the individual.

Autopsies performed on a very large number of persons who died of diseases other than tuberculosis, show evidence of the disease in more than 90 per cent, one observer says in 98 per cent of all cases. We now believe that in one form or another most persons are infected at some time during their existence, usually early in life.

Fortunately, the majority of those infected with tuberculosis have within themselves the power to resist the disease. But if this resistance is broken down the germ becomes active and the patient yields to the disease.

That is the reason why it is so important for us to guard the health if we wish to avoid this terrible affliction. That is why poverty, poor food, bad housing, overwork, worry, intemperance and dissipation pave the way for the disease. All these things lessen the resistance of the individual, allowing the ever-present germs to become active.

Tuberculosis usually attacks persons in early adult life. Its mortality is greatest between the ages of 25 and 35. In other words, when the individual should be of the greatest use to the world and when he has the largest number of dependents, that is the very time he yields to this dreadful disease.

Tuberculosis is both preventable and curable. We can guard ourselves from tuberculosis by maintaining good health which increases our natural immunity. We can guard against infection by avoiding contact with persons having the disease and who are careless in exposing others.

There is no specific cure for tuberculosis. There is no drug which alone will affect its course, nor has a serum or vaccine been produced which will control it. The cure of the disease resolves itself into the upbuilding of the individual and improving his general health so that everyone possesses will bring about the arrest of the disease.

It is gratifying to know that tuberculosis is much less prevalent and less fatal than it used to be. We are learning how to live and with increased health knowledge and practice will come an end of this disease.

Other Editors Say

Cost of Ballyhoo.

Dissolution of the partnership of Cash and Carry Fyle and Red Grange has been announced in Chicago. Rumors of the great fortunes they have made to the contrary, it is now reported that their various sport promotions, including the banion Derby, have already been carried on at a loss, and that Grange is getting out in order to exploit his own abilities.

This incident with several others have lately come to light indicates that published reports of the big money made by professional entertainers are greatly overdrawn. In the recent litigation between Jack Dempsey and his former manager actual figures of their combined earnings in important exhibitions were introduced as evidence. They indicated beyond a doubt, that, although Dempsey was exceedingly well paid for what he did and what he knew, the best of his fights left him after all expenses only a moderate sum.

Gertrude Ederle, who has been much in the limelight since her famous channel swim, likewise had occasion recently to publish a statement of her income and expenses since she went on the stage. Her net earnings were surprisingly low; net expenses for managers and agents and what not, on the other hand, were no less surprisingly high.

A tremendous amount of ballyhoo work to be essential to the life and work of our professional entertainers. And ballyhoo though usually of low quality commands a high price.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Something of a sneak, aren't you? At least you are not a square shooter.

If you were anxious to do the right thing you would leave a note in that man's car giving your name and address.

To the man who has a conscience, running away after damaging a car brings many disturbing thoughts.

Isn't your peace of mind worth the amount it would cost you, to pay for repairs, to a car that you have damaged?

If you think about your actions afterwards, you must be disgusted with yourself when you consider what a sneak you are.

If you take pride in your own car you must realize how a person feels who has had his car marred or fenders bent by another.

You would not trust a man who would run away after damaging your car.

So you can't have a good opinion of yourself if you do the same thing. Copyright, 1928, International Future Service, Inc.

G. O. P. CHIEFS PLEDGED FUNDS FOR CAMPAIGN

Dr. Work and Aides
Confer With Hoover.

SEEK WAR CHEST
Influential Business Men
Will be Unpaid Workers.

WASHINGTON, June 22 — With the basic reorganization of the Republican campaign set up, G. O. P. chiefs today turned their attention to the all-important subject of cash to carry on the drive for the White House.

The financial aspects of the campaign were talked over by Dr. Hubert Work, the new chairman, J. R. Nutt, Cleveland banker allied with the Van Sweringen interests, the treasurer, and Herbert Hoover, the presidential candidate.

There will be no lack of funds for the Hoover campaign to maintain "Republican ascendancy for eight years."

It was learned, however, that Hoover has pledged the support of many influential business men throughout the country who will be volunteer and unpaid workers.

In preparing the campaign chest and its disbursement, Hoover's forces were mindful of the existence of the senate slush fund committee which is now in Chicago to inquire into a $40,000 expenditure in Wisconsin and Minnesota during the primaries.

The Hoover-Curtis-Work organization has adopted a policy of "pay as you go." Hoover, it was learned, is opposed to incurring any large party debt during the campaign and hopes to have all obligations cleared away within a month or two after the election.

102, BUT HE TAKES AIR HOP

CLEVELAND, June 22.—Patrick J. Vizzard, Cleveland's oldest citizen, today was telling his friends that he is anxious to fly over his home town again after he celebrated his 102nd birthday yesterday by being in the air nearly an hour. Vizzard "went up" from the Cleveland airport with some friends and viewed the city at a height of 1,000 feet or more.

In Nutt the Hoover leaders feel that they have a treasurer of unusual ability. Nutt, besides his affiliations with the Van Sweringen brothers of railroad fame, is a well-known Cleveland banker.

Question of Business, Says Nutt.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—J. R. Nutt, 59, president of the Union Trust Co., here, who was named treasurer of the Republican national committee yesterday, has long been an admirer of Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee for president and is well fitted for his new political position, his friends said.

"I have never taken part in things political," Nutt declared. "But now we have an opportunity to elect one of the best trained and best equipped men we've ever had. It's not a question of politics with me; it's a question of business."

Speaking of funds for the coming presidential campaign, Nutt said:

"It will take several millions. This campaign will be a great national debate. Most of the expenses will be for publicity. Let the people understand the real situation and, as a rule, if they understand, they don't go far wrong."

Swollen Creek Breaks 16-Inch Supply Pipe

Deluge of Water and Mud Sweeps Into Buckeye Avenue Homes as Result of Hillside Slips During Storm.

Causing damage difficult to estimate in dollars and cents, one of the worst storms in recent history last night washed out a 100-foot section of the 16-inch main from the reservoir and cut off the entire water supply of Wellsville.

The heavy rain broke through two sewers, washed out a section of the cinder pile underneath the temporary street car tracks over Little Yellow creek, inundated streets in the west end of town, flooded cellars, started land slips that swept mud and water into homes along Buckeye avenue, and was responsible for one frame dwelling fire, and flung mud, rock and debris over Wells avenue.

Railroad and Mill Aid.

City service department forces, faced with the most stupendous clean-up job in recent years, were concentrating their attention today on repairs to the water main which broke about two miles north of Wellsville under the tremendous pressure of the swollen waters of Little Yellow Creek.

In the meantime, a small supply is being pumped into city mains by the Pennsylvania Railroad company and American Sheet & Tin Plate plant here, the amount, however, being inadequate to meet all demands.

Service Director George Imbrie has issued a warning, however, that this temporary supply is not disinfected and therefore, unfit for drinking purposes. Economy is urged in its use. From two to three days will be required to complete repairs to the water line, city officials said.

Streets Inundated.

Streets in the west end of the city, including portions of Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Commerce, Seventeenth and Eighteenth, were inundated, the water at the intersection of Seventeenth and Commerce, the low spot, standing several feet in depth.

Street car traffic was cut off there early in the evening and had not been resumed this morning.

Cellars in Johnson place and in other sections of the flood area were filled or partially filled with water. One property owner reported water in his cellar almost to the first floor.

Home of an Italian laborer by the name of Bonapere, near Eighth street and Buckeye avenue, was practically wrecked by water, mud and then fire.

Hillside earth along Buckeye avenue, loosened by the rain, moved down in a number of slips, seeping into yards and even into homes.

The moving earth pushed into the Bonapere home, broke off a gas pipe and the escaping fuel became ignited. The fire department was called and

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, June 22. — Industrial stocks made feeble response in the early trading today to the $158,000,000 decline in brokers' loans reported by the reserve board after the close of Thursday's market. A few of the market leaders opened at higher ranges, but the "demonstrations" were not very impressive, and industrial stocks were freely offered when the market showed signs of strength.

The rails made a better showing. Pittsburgh and West Virginia added six points to yesterday's seven-point advance as the result of the commerce commission's permission to construct a spur joining the Wheeling and Lake Erie's lines. The better grade of dividend-paying rail stocks sold up one to three points from the previous close.

General Motors was offered in volume around 174 and was therefore unable to make much progress. Chrysler led the low-priced motors, with a three-point advance to 68 1/2. Willys Overland reached 2 points, while Studebaker advanced fractionally to above 67. Short covering in Radio accounted for its five-point rally to 174 1/2. High-priced mercantile stocks started a new advance, but were unable to continue more than a point or two. Seaboard Air Line railroad common and preferred declined fractionally on announcement of the passing of the semi-annual interest in the adjustment bonds, the bonds reacting five points at the opening of the market.

Call money was unchanged at 6 1/2 per cent. Commodity markets were generally steady with grain and cotton fractionally higher. A 13-point jump in Spanish pesetas was the feature of the foreign exchange market.

Chicago Grains.

managed to extinguish the blaze.

Water and mud slipped in on the John Woolley residence near the head of Fifth street as well as other homes in that vicinity from the hillside above.

Temporary Trestle Threatened.

Temporary street car trestle over rampaging Little Yellow creek was threatened as logs, stones and debris piled up against the timber work supporting the tracks. The trestle has been erected to detour street cars pending the construction of a new concrete bridge. At the east end of the trestle, where the tracks come off the cinder pile onto the span over the creek, a great quantity of the bank was swept away, leaving a portion of the track and ties suspended in the air.

Lisbon road was partially filled with small slips and running water, mostly near "limekiln hollow."

Wells avenue from Wells hollow west to the mill ran curb deep in water and mud as the little creek passing under the street at that point and then on down past the mill, choked the culvert with logs, tree stumps and rocks and then poured up over the pavements, effectually blocking traffic of all description for a short time. Mayor Wallace Fogo, Director Imbrie, police, firemen and volunteer assistants worked throughout the night, endeavoring to relieve conditions wherever possible, opening up sewers, cleaning out streets and then up Little Yellow creek to the water main break.

CITY'S FIRST OUTING SUCCESS

Sports contests, softball game and other outdoor sports were features of the afternoon program.

Rain which began to fall at 5 o'clock marred the evening program.

MIDLAND AUTOMOBILE OPERATOR CONVICTED IN DEATH OF CHILD

Tubacio Costa, Found Guilty of Involuntary Manslaughter in Vanport Accident, Awaits Sentence.

BEAVER, Pa., June 22.—Tubacio Costa, Midland negro, was convicted of involuntary manslaughter by a jury in criminal court yesterday in connection with an automobile accident two years ago near Vanport. He will be sentenced later.

Costa was charged with killing Elita Deszini, 7, daughter of Tony Deszini, when, according to his testimony, the child ran from behind a parked car into the path of his machine. The automobile, occupied by Costa, his wife and John Pinn, also of Midland, and several children, was swerved into a ravine in an effort to avoid striking the child.

Murder charges against Charles Perault, Beaver bridge watchman, were reduced to involuntary manslaughter counts when Perault went on trial yesterday. ## DAILY BIBLE SCHOOL CLOSES Picnic Held in Presbyterian Church Basement.

MIDLAND, Pa., June 22.—Basket picnic marking the close of the three weeks' session of the daily vacation Bible school, scheduled to be held in Lincoln park, was held in the Presbyterian basement today. Lincoln park was inundated by last night's heavy rain.

More than 150 persons attended the demonstration of work of the school in the church last night. All departments participated in the exhibit.

E. B. Beglin, treasurer, reported that the budget of $165 for operation of the school this year is virtually raised.

EMPIRE STATE CHIEF'S VIEWS ARE UNCHANGED

Smith Clarifies His Attitude Regarding Prohibition.

ANSWERS SCRIBES

Favors Amendment to Present Dry Enactment.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Governor Alfred E. Smith's name will go before the Democratic convention next week with the clear understanding that his candidacy for president has brought about no change in his views regarding prohibition. His attitude was clarified today by a statement answering newspaper interviews. He declared he had not changed his belief that there should be an amendment to the present prohibition provisions.

Although silence was urged on the question on the ground that bone dry Democratic elements might be conciliated, close friends of the governor all along have predicted that when the time came he would announce a stand consistent with his record of years as an opponent of the Volstead act.

Governor Smith's announcement was precipitated by the flurry caused in Houston by Norman E. Mack, Democratic national committeeman from New York.

Mack, without consulting Governor Smith's managers, issued a statement saying that the governor favors giving the states the right to determine the legal alcoholic content of beverages sold in their jurisdiction. He expressed hope that the convention's prohibition plank will square with Governor Smith's position.

His attitude in 1924. The governor was asked: "In view of the questions raised at Houston by Mack's statement, have you changed your belief that there should be amendment to the present prohibition provisions?"

Without hesitating Governor Smith answered:

"I have not."

His attitude on the subject was clearly defined on the eve of the Madison Square Garden convention in 1924. He said then:

"I maintain that the present hypocritical attitude toward the whole question of prohibition would be greatly relaxed by having congress fix a minimum alcoholic content, based upon science and sound reasoning, thereafter leaving every state to enact any statute it pleases with regard to regulation of the traffic in light wines and beer within that alcoholic content, so that the state that desires strict prohibition may have it, and the state that desires light wines and beer within the alcoholic content prescribed by congress may also have what it desires."

Reports that he would resign the governorship after being nominated were spiced by Governor Smith.

Smith Defines Stand

At least, the Paramount issue in this pre-convention maneuvering.

Norman Mack, the veteran New York national committeeman, raised the issue by his bold statement that Governor Smith was and is in favor of allowing each state to make its own interpretation of the dry laws; George R. Van Namee, campaign manager for Governor Smith, contributed to it by his rather sharp rejoinder that no one was authorized to speak for the New York governor. And Smith himself added to it by reasserting at Albany last night his belief that the present Volstead law would be amended. The governor said, in effect, that the fact he was a candidate for the White House had not operated to change his mind on this point in the slightest.

The governor's statement was a red flag to the radical and professional drys who are now gathering here in force to prevent, if possible, the nomination of a "wet candidate." The Anti-Saloon League, the W. C. T. U. and their kindred organizations laid down a veritable barrage of statements today warning the incoming delegates that "the nomination of Smith or any other wet" means dire things next November.

Expect Reaffirmation of 1924 Plank. Despite the avalanche of statements and threats on one side, it appeared wholly likely today that the platform which is to be adopted next week simply will reaffirm the plank of 1924, which pledged the party to rigorous enforcement and respect for all laws. Such is the advice of even those temperate drys like Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, who already is looking beyond Houston and toward November.

Senator Harrison does not believe that it is necessary for the Democrats to single out one law, the Volstead law, for example, and pledge it undying support and allegiance. If that law is to be singled out for specific support and observance, Senator Harrison observed, then there is no reason why the convention should not go down the line for other laws about which there is controversy.

The extreme drys are talking of "drafting" Gov. Dan Moody, of Texas, for the leadership of the dry fight, and undoubtedly he will play a prominent part in it, but the plans have not yet crystallized to the point where a generalissimo can be agreed upon. As paving the way for such a selection, however, Former Lieut. Gov. Lynch Davidson, of Texas, was out today with a statement, criticizing Tammany's attitude on prohibition, and asserting that Mack "had let the prohibition cat out of the bag."

Outside of the platform scrap, the principal contest before the convention appeared today to be over the vice presidency.

TODAY

page." But no one pays attention to that. Romance is the thing, and Miss Earhart supplies it.

IN New York's brutal dancing contest—the dance to go on until all but one couple drop—the female dancers, nervously exhausted, slap their partner's faces. Then the men slap the women's faces vigorously. The yahoos, called "fans," looking on, shriek with delight, as the half crazed dancers strike each other.

Such is our poor imitation of the Roman arena.

"CITIES of corpses" will be one feature of the next big war, according to German experts. It will be a "gas war" and nations may be destroyed without the firing of a shot. Masses of troops would be wiped out instantly, not a man escaping, and armies will never again take the field.

SIR FRANK FOX says, in his book, "The Mastery of the Pacific," "London might be destroyed as a habitable city within an hour of the declaration of war, by a great bombing air fleet."

A nation contemplating war should first build under ground habitations for its population, store food there, build ammunition factories underground. And if possible, "science" should seek out some form of fungus vegetation capable of supporting life, which could be cultivated underground.

GERMANY says this country leads all nations in making destructive gases and explosives. Not true probably, but welcome news if it is true.

We shall attack no one, and gas no one, unless attacked. But we should be so well prepared in the air and in chemical laboratories, as to make any attack on us equivalent to national suicide, for the nation attacking.

As it is, unfortunately, we are completely unprepared, in the air, at the mercy of any air invasion.

FARM RELIEF CRUSADERS ON HOUSTON JOB

Predict Adoption of Orphan Child by Democrats.

ASK RECOGNITION

McNary-Haugen Bill
Name Not to be Mentioned.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 22.—Crusaders in the cause of farm relief, here to lay their orphan child on the doorstep of the Democratic national convention, today predicted its adoption and a rapid bloom into full maturity after the November election.

Trekking southward in record time after their futile fight for the McNary-Haugen bill in Kansas City, the farm leaders already are engaged in a quiet but intense plea for recognition.

There will be no farmers' march on Houston, and none of the blare of farmers' bands which sounded a menacing note at the height of the Republican meeting.

"We are in the hands of friends here," explained one worker. "A dozen leaders will handle the negotiations for the farmers. Both sides are agreeable to compromise, and I believe that we will get together."

There was some indication that the farm leaders would not insist upon the McNary-Haugen bill being mentioned by name, although the same farm relief plank that was rejected at Kansas City will be presented here.

Although Gov. Al Smith has not known his specific views on the McNary-Haugen bill, both Democratic senators from New York voted for the measure.

Senator James A. Reed, the outstanding opponent of the New York executive, fought the McNary-Haugen bill, while Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, another candidate, maintained his opposition in the house despite pleadings from minority leaders.

RESTORE ORDER AT AGRAM; FOUR DEAD, 43 HURT

Rioting Follows Assassination of Two Croatian Deputies.

CITY IN MOURNING

Opposition Newspapers
Blame "Corrupt
Clique."

VIENNA, June 22.—Soldiers at Agram (Zagreb) restored order today after a violent outbreak of political rioting in which four persons were killed and 43 seriously wounded. The violence resulted from the assassination of two Croatian peasant deputies in parliament at Belgrade on Wednesday—Paul Raditch and George Basaritch.

The bodies of the slain deputies arrived at Agram this morning and were received by a huge crowd, said a dispatch from Belgrade. The whole city is covered with black flags. The burial will take place on Saturday.

The Croatian (opposition) newspaper Nvosti, published at Agram, charges that the assassinations "resulted from the plotting of a corrupt clique at Belgrade who sought to do away with the strongest leaders of the campaign for political independence for the Croats."

This newspaper demands that separate and independent states be created for the Croats, Slovenes and Serbs. At the present time all these states are part of the Yugoslavian kingdom.

The Serb garrisons at Belgrade and throughout Croatia are being strengthened.

News that Stefan Raditch, chief leader of the Croatian peasant party, is in a serious condition from his wounds, has inflamed the feelings of the peasants still higher.

Storm Hits Trolley

park, tore away a section of the retaining wall near the park entrance and threatened to flood the "Green Lantern" restaurant. Dirt, which was washed down from the embankment, damaged Crystal pool. The pool was drained last night and park employees labored until 4 o'clock this morning removing earth from the steps on the east side of the pool. Sandbags were used to prevent the boating lake from overflowing its banks at the north end of the dam.

Telephone service was also hit by the storm. Toll lines to Steubenville were severed by a break at the lower end of Wellsville, while five poles toppled to the road just south of Ross Meadows, Lincoln highway. Repair crews had completed the repairs before noon today.

Landslide on Penn Avenue

The Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company today was maintaining service to Beaver by transferring passengers at slip transfer points were established west of here, one at Brady's cut, where the foundation of the tracks was washed away, and another at Boring's Crossing in the lower end of Wellsville. No damage was reported below the Jefferson county line or east of the "red steps."

One car was operated on the Grandview street car line this morning, while motor buses were in service on the Chester branch. Street car service on the Grandview division last night was crippled by dirt which covered the tracks in Ambrose avenue at Riley and also near Bank and Avondale streets. Schedules will be re-established as soon as the cars can be brought past the slip which will likely be late this afternoon.

Buses operating on the River Road line were halted for a short time last night when water flooded the highway at a point near Ralston's cross to a point of about three feet. Service between the two terminal points was resumed after the water had been carried away in storm sewers.

Car Derailed in Newell

In Newell a car was derailed in the "hollow" near the old park stop during the height of the storm. Cars were also tied up for a while by dirt which was washed onto the tracks at the Newell end of the Newell-East Liverpool bridge. Little trouble was experienced in maintaining a half-hour schedule, company officials said.

A slip near Brookers stop delayed the north-bound Y. & O. car leaving here at 8:30 o'clock last night. A work crew was rushed from Leetonia, but it was not until 3:30 o'clock this morning that the track was again opened. Schedules were being maintained on the line today.

Fears that the concrete retaining wall in Lisbon street which was poured yesterday would be damaged, was expressed last night but an examination of the forms today showed it to be holding. City street department workers and firemen from the Central station were pressed into service last night in pumping water from the hole menacing the wall.

Temporary detour signs routing automobiles to Wellsville and out the St. Clair avenue connecting with the Lincoln highway at West Point and Apple's Corners were erected by the county engineer's office today. As a result of the washout on Lisbon street, the road will not be opened for a week or more, as a big fill must be made in the street for vehicular traffic.

C. R. Farmer Seriously Ill. C. R. Farmer, Chester avenue, assistant manager of the local office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, who has been seriously ill for about six weeks, was removed to the home of relatives in Steubenville last night. He will probably enter the John Hopkins hospital in Baltimore within the near future.

SEVEN ARE HELD IN LYNCHING QUIZ

HOUSTON, Tex., June 22.—With the confession early today of one of the participants, police officials declared the lynching of Robert Powell, a Negro who was dragged from a hospital bed and hanged to a bridge near the city, had been completely cleared up. Powell had shot and killed a police officer.

The lynching, the first in Houston in the city's history, coming on the eve of the Democratic national convention, had deeply stirred the public.

Seven men were charged with the murder at a hearing before a justice of the peace early today. They are: A. B. Wheeler, 26, boilermaker; John Kent, 27, ambulance driver; F. T. Shuck, 32; "Tack" Reese, 25, taxi driver; "Bubber" Kent and Howard Minton. Kent and Minton have not yet been arrested. Wheeler was the man who confessed his part in the lynching and implicated the others.

NAME GLEDHILL TO HEAD OHIO ODD FELLOWS

Officers Installed as Urbana Session
Closes.

ELECTED BY MAIL

Lisbon Man Chosen
Grand Conductor of Canton.

URBANA, O., June 22.—Installation of officers to head the 80,000 Odd Fellows in Ohio took place at the closing session of the five day convention of the state group of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows here today.

At the business session late yesterday New Philadelphia was chosen the state convention city for the 1929 convocation.

Officers installed this morning were: John W. Gledhill, Warren, grand master; J. M. Fritzpatrick, Ethel, Monroe county, deputy grand master; William T. Watkins, Marietta, grand warden; W. E. Crosier, Columbus, grand secretary; Dr. George Kolb, Cincinnati, grand treasurer.

Following were installed as officers of cantons: Rev. L. P. Clark, Warren, grand chaplain; Maj. Fred H. A. Hahn, Toledo, grand marshal; John C. Hassler, Lisbon, grand conductor; Harry Murray Warren, grand inside guardian; O. S. Ray, Hamden, Vinton county, grand herald; H. A. Sutton, Spencerville, grand messenger; and Charles F. Cross, Columbus, assistant grand secretary.

Gledhill, new grand master, succeeds Chas. A. Summers, of Oberlin. Approximately 250 delegates from the 78 Ohio districts were present at the meeting.

A resolution to provide for the election as well as the installation of the officers at the state convention was put before the convention but it was "tabled" until next year. At present the officers are elected by "mail ballot" some six months before the state convention.

DELAY EXECUTION OF JOHN SABO

Columbus, O., June 22.—The Ohio supreme court, it was stated today, will delay fixing a date for the execution of John Sabo, Akron, and will give counsel for Sabo opportunity to file an application for a rehearing. The supreme court this week upheld the death decree imposed upon Sabo by the Summit county courts which found him guilty of murdering Barton Painter, a workman, at Akron, May 25, 1926.

The appellate court fixed March 16, last, as the date for Sabo's election, but the supreme court granted an indefinite stay of execution pending final disposition of the appeal.

SCHOOL BOARD TO RUSH SPORT FIELD WORK

Plan First Unit of Program This Year.

TO ERECT FENCE

Engineer Recommends Culvert Under Railroad Tracks.

Proposed improvements to the Patterson Field athletic lot will be started "at once," according to action taken at the meeting of the board of education last night.

First unit of the proposed changes in the field will be completed this year. This will include the fencing of the lot and the construction of the main playing field along the west side of the tract. This work according to figures of J. R. Daugherty, Youngstown engineer, will cost $10,236, of which $4,616 for the fence has been paid by the old board.

Daugherty urged the construction of the culvert under the Cleveland division railroad tracks at the earliest possible date in order to provide a drain for the field. This culvert, which will cost about $2,660, will be provided this year if funds are available.

The board accepted the agreement drawn up by the Pennsylvania Railroad company for the construction of the culvert under the right of way in exchange for a quit claim title for Patterson field property which the railroad company is said to be occupying. A proposal which will be offered to city council, in which the city will agree to share in the construction of the culvert, was also approved by the board.

Oil Company to Deed Tract. Representatives of the Standard Oil company stated that the company's board of directors had agreed to deed the 40-foot strip of ground east of their wholesale station in Gaston avenue, sought by the school board as a site for a grand stand. This tract is 49 feet in width and 410 feet in length.

The engineer estimated the cost of constructing the sub-drainage to the main playing field at $3,940. Rough grading to the main playing field will cost $360, while the finish grading will add $1,200. Construction of temporary drainage ditches will require about $120.

Daugherty will come to East Liverpool next Monday night to consider estimates of contractors. The fence will be ordered immediately so that it can be placed in position before the football season opens.

The city service safety department was requested by board representatives today to open the drainage sewer which leads from the field under West Fourth street extension.

Deficit in Athletic Fund. High school principal B. G. Ludwig submitted a financial report of high school athletics for the last term of school showing a deficit of approximately $200. This will be liquidated, he declared, next year.

Football showed a profit of about $500, but both basketball and track resulted in losses. Ludwig also requested the installation of a clock in the high school principal's office which would automatically ring bells in the class rooms at the end of each period. The request was referred to the supplies committee.

Recommendation of E. L. Heusch, Columbus, head of the department of vocational training, for the employment of two ceramic instructors instead of one was approved. The state and federal government will pay the salary of one instructor and half the salary of the other. Prof. Paul Kelly, who was director of the school last year has been re-engaged to teach the technical end of the work, while an experienced potter will be engaged to handle the practical side of the course.

A committee of La Crosse residents, who recently requested the establishment of a school for lower grade pupils in that district, attended the meeting with figures showing 93 children will enter the first four grades next fall. Superintendent C. S. McVay was instructed to investigate the possibility of renting the church in La Crosse for school purposes.

CLIPPINGER HEADS SUNDAY SCHOOLS

VAN WERT, O., June 22.—W. E. Clippinger, president of Otterbein college, Westerville, was elected president of the Ohio Sunday School association at the session of the annual convention here today.

Other officers chosen were Rev. A. Stokes Watson, Zanesville; Charles E. Lewis, Harpersburg; E. J. Bruckhart, Celina; E. C. Eisenberry, Camden; and Charles Kennedy, Van Wert, vice presidents; Ralph Lucas, Columbus, treasurer; Wilson A. Holmes, Granville, reporting secretary, and Arthur Arnold, Columbus, general secretary.

The convention city for 1929 was to be chosen at the closing session late today.

VERMONT SET FAST PACE IN ROAD BUILDING

Spends $13,600,000 This Year on Highways.

CLEAN-UP DRIVE
Plans Outlay Greater Than Other New England States.

MONTPELIER, Vt.—Spending $13,600,000 for new roads, more money than any other New England state has ever had ready to spend for the rebuilding of highways, Vermont is now prepared for its final step from the slough of despond that followed the floods of last November.

Flood deposits that for weeks and months gutted the highways of the state have been so cleared that there is a one-car road with cutouts running through every town and section of Vermont. Stoddard Bates, highway commissioner of the state, has had charge of the work.

Big Fund Raised.
Bates, a colorful Vermont, state that produced two others who are equally well known here—Calvin Coolidge and John G. Sargent, takes pride in the quick patchwork that made a flooded and muddy state passable until appropriations could rebuild the highway network.

Vermont has an annual appropriation of $3,000,000 for highways and to this was added another $10,000,000, secured by devious methods.

A special legislative session, called by Governor Weeks, voted an $8,000,000 bond issue for emergency road construction.

National representatives of the Green Mountain State in Washington persuaded the government to add $2,500,000 toward the restoring of roads that had previously been granted government aid.

Practically all of this $13,600,000 for new roads will remain in the state. The work will supply employment for thousands of Vermont bread-winners, many of whom are unable to till the mud-coated farm that once gave them their livelihood.

Wages Go Up.
This ready employment, with its minimum labor wage of from $5 to $8, has created some agricultural concern. The wage, ordinary in a city, will be a large one in the country districts, and it is thought that many of the farmers whose lands are capable of tillage, will prefer the more remunerative road building.

HERRIN MINERS ASSAIL LEWIS

HERRIN, Ill., June 22.—Members of the United Mine Workers local union here went on record today in one of the most drastic resolutions, demanding release from the present policy pursued by the administration of John L. Lewis, international president.

The resolution put the miners on record as condemning the wage scale adopted in the several contracts signed with individuals as an "unbearable policy," and demands that the entire matter be sent to the miners for a referendum vote.

The resolution condemns the present day wage basis for contract for mechanical devices in the coal mines of this state and demands that it shall be terminated by a contract which shall provide a tonnage basis instead.

Cologne Gives Map Of City to All Motor Tourists

COLOGNE.—All strangers entering Cologne by auto now receive at the outskirts of the city, free of charge, a small map showing the route by which the center of the city can be best reached, and giving the location of the hotels, garages and public buildings on the route.

Different maps have been prepared for every one of the ten main streets leading into the city. On the reverse side is a map of the entire city, which is rendered unusually valuable and easy to read by the fact that it contains only the main streets.

WORLD STILL WITHOUT WORD FROM AMUNDSEN

Ice Breaker Will Attempt to Rescue Nobile.

10 MEN MISSING

Norwegian Government to Send Boat Into Arctic Sea.

The outside world today was still without word of Capt. Roald Amundsen, Lieut. Leif Dietrichsen and Rene Guilband, who had been missing since they hepped off in a French seaplane at Tromsø, Norway, on Monday for search for the Nobile expedition in the Arctic.

An effort will be made to remove General Umberto Nobile and his five companions on an ice breaker from the ice floe on which they sought refuge off northeast land after the disaster to the Italia.

The fate of the remaining 10 members of the Nobile expedition remains a mystery.

The Norwegian government will send a torpedo boat into the Arctic sea to search for Amundsen and his companions and the missing explorers from the Italia.

Norwegian aviators Hjalmar Riiser-Larsen and Lieut. Lutzow Holm have been instructed to make systematic search of the west coast of Spitzbergen for the Amundsen plane.

Relief work will be hastened owing to the fact that this is the season of the year when thick fogs develop suddenly over the Arctic ice fields.

Comb Coast for Flyers.
LONDON, June 22.—Captain Riiser-Larsen and Lieut. Lutzow Holm, the Norwegian aviators, have been instructed to make a systematic search of the west coast of Spitzbergen for Capt. Roald Amundsen, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen stated today.

Grave fears are now felt for the safety of the famous Arctic explorer, who with Major Rene Guilband and three others left Tromsø, Norway, in a French plane to search for General Umberto Nobile more than three and a half days ago and has not been heard from since.

PISA, Italy, June 22.—Another Dornier-Wahl plane, piloted by Commander Ravassoni, left here at 5:45 a. m. today bound for King's bay, Spitzbergen, where it will aid in the search for Capt. Roald Amundsen.

Having 173 rooms, including 30 reception rooms, 130 bedrooms, and 12 bathrooms, the residence in London of Lord Iveagh, which was sold to an American, is again for sale.

Walker Is Given Decision Over Hudkins In 10-Round Scrap

Judges, Referee, Crowd Disagree on Verdict

Champion Has "Ace" in Bad Way in Fourth But Fails to Show Anything in Remaining Six Rounds.

By Davis J. Walsh.

CHICAGO, June 22.—They pulled one out of the hat for the boys at Comiskey park in the rain last night when they said Mickey Walker was the winner over Ace Hudkins in their ten round fight for the middleweight championship of the world. Walker didn't win, according to my scoring, any more than the same fighter beat Dave Shada out of the welterweight title in New York several years ago or, according to popular indictment, any more than he won the title he now holds at the expense of the late Tiger Flowers.

But I've had a hard, hard life and somehow I find myself in the ageing wood very nicely. No longer do I react violently to decisions that fail to cajole by judgment. The pass has been reached where respect for the opinion of others has become strangely tolerant and the fact of the matter was that two local citizens, Ed Klein, a restaurateur, and Harry Carroll, an auditor, sat in the judges' chairs and said that Walker had won. Ed Purdy, the referee, voted for Hudkins but quite a few newspaper critics said it the way the judges did. The crowd of some 30,000 didn't like it at all.

So maybe there was a margin of honest doubt about the business and maybe, too, I'm as blind as a hook without an eye. It must have been one or the other. It couldn't be both.

Walker, as the writer saw him, carried just two rounds of the ten, one of them by a convincing margin. This was the fourth in which he had Hudkins drooping on the edge of a knock-out from a flurry of lefts and rights to the jaw. This was Walker's big moment, virtually his only one, just as the seventh round was Dempsey's climax with Tunney.

One more punch might have won for both of them but neither had it. Walker blew up with victory in sight. His arms and legs went dead when, by all the odds of the game, they should have been tingling with life. I think Walker is through.

Mickey was so weary after the fourth that he could barely lift his arms and then only to protect himself against Hudkins' incessant attack on the body. It is difficult to see how they could give a decision to a man who did nothing very steadily for the last six rounds. But they could, in fact, the matter went a trifle further than that. They did.

Some observers said they thought Walker won because he landed the cleaner punches. Personally, I would like to know just how many he landed, clean or otherwise, in the last six rounds and I'll even count the ones he would have liked to start, had he been able. The champion just didn't have a punch in him for the second half of the fight.

Rose-Smith Punch for Valley Title in Right at Wellsville

Middleweights Scheduled for Eight-round Scrap Wednesday; Three Other Bouts on Program.

IN what Promoters Ray and Byron Founts announce as a battle for the middleweight championship of the Ohio Valley, "Rocky" Ed Rose of Wellsville and Pete Smith, Toronto mauler, will fight Wednesday night in the city hall auditorium, Wellsville.

The four-bout program originally was scheduled for Salsville but yesterday, it was announced, had been transferred to Wellsville.

Young Pansy, Midland boxer and Kenney Davis of East Liverpool, 118-pounders, are assigned for six rounds in the semi-final.

In the preliminaries, Duke Hecka, thorne of East Liverpool and Ted Clark of Parkersburg will go four rounds; and Bruce Watkins, Ironton, and Tige Smith, Salsville, the same distance.

Tom McMahon who once knocked Jess Willard and who at one time was rated as a leading white hope for heavyweight honors, will referee. McMahon is policing in Midland now.

Tickets, at popular prices, are on sale at Frank Diamond's store, East Liverpool; Fred Edwards' barber shop, Chester; Frank Geisse's billiard parlors, Wellsville; the Hub store and William's barber shop, Midland.

Pansy at New Castle. MIDLAND, Pa., June 22.—Young Pansy, Midland lightweight, has been signed to go four rounds with Terry McManus, Pittsburgh, in a preliminary on the fight card at New Castle Monday night in the Jolly bowl, at 9 o'clock, fast time.

Young Pansy, who is carded as Young Denry, will give the Pittsburgher some fast fighting. He will appear on a Wellsville, O., bill at fare for fight fans the following night.

Main go at the New Castle affray will be between Battling Levinsky, ex-champ heavy, and Emmett Rocco, Ellwood city, prospect. Three other bouts are scheduled.

Last Night's Fights. AT CHICAGO — Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, beat Ace Hudkins (10). Les Marriner, University of Illinois heavyweight, knocked out Tex McCune (2). Johnny Sherrod, Chicago, Ko O'd Billy Sherman, Grand Rapids, Mich. (4).

AT ST. LOUIS — Jack Sharkey, championship contender, knocked out Leo Gates (3). AT DETROIT — Billy Petrolle, decision over Bruce Flowers (10).

M'Larnin Winner in One Round

Chops Down Phil McGraw in Two Minutes, 45 Seconds.

By Sid Mercer.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Jimmy McLarnin either hits or misses. He hit Sid Terris for a one-round goal, missed Sammy Mandell for fifteen rounds and came back last night at the garden to reinstate himself as a first-class fighting man by chopping Phil McGraw down almost as quickly as he disposed of Terris.

It was the first time that McGraw has been stopped. He was down five times in the first and only round, but he was upright when Referee Jack Dorman spiked McLarnin's guns. At least Phil can boast that no man has ever yet been able to spread and tack him down for ten seconds.

The official time of the technical knockout was two minutes and 45 seconds. McGraw was badly and practically on his feet, yet he was able to stand up and feint drunkenly, and might have lasted the fifteen seconds that he had to go.

The Detroit florist was disdainful of McLarnin's hitting power, and so came a cropper. Little "baby face" took his time about getting Phil set for the kill, but once he measured him the rest was just a matter of how often Phil could get up.

McLarnin is now in line for another championship bout with Mandell.

Horseshoers Book Two Big Sessions Here

Mossman in Action Tonight; Jackson Boys Tomorrow.

A double portion of horseshoers, served with championship flavor will be dished up to district shoe fans here tonight and tomorrow, with an ex-world's champion and a pair who have been the very close the top being scheduled for exhibition performances here.

"Putt" Mossman, 21, who laid claim to titular honors in 1924-25, 26, was billed to show his wares here last night but rain stopped the program. As a result he postponed the exhibition until tonight. He is scheduled to show at the courts adjoining the Beers-Hanks garage tonight at 6 o'clock.

Tomorrow afternoon Carroll Jackson and Hansford Jackson, touring horseshoe pitchers, will blow into town. They will pitch tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on court at the corner of Mulberry and St. George streets.

In the evening they will appear on the West Sixth street court.

The Jackson boys are sons of Frank Jackson, one-time world's champion and have, without doubt, inherited a large amount of their father's traits when it comes to heaving the lucky pieces. They have taken part in a number of state and national tournaments and have held the championships of Illinois and Iowa. Hansford placed third in the national tournament at Minneapolis and his brother fifth in the national game at Duluth last winter.

They will give an exhibition of fancy pitching, such as making fingers on a hidden stake, making ringers through each other's arms and many other difficult tricks with the shoes. They will also give a demonstration of all the different turns of the shoes; and will probably play several of the local stars as well as staging a match between themselves.

But Jones' Chances Appear Extremely Good.

By Davis J. Walsh.

OLYMPIA FIELDS, Ill., June 22.—Matters looked no worse than extremely good for Bobby Jones, the chronic champion, as the greatest field ever assembled on one golf course made ready to have at it once more in the second round of the national open championship this morning. It perhaps would be going a bit too far, as they said about the man who walked very firmly out the third story window, to declare that Jones cannot lose.

The first day fairly reeked with surprises that featured like Ball, Guich, Leonard Schmutte, Horton Smith, Johnny Jones and Fred Morrison in the first ten. The hardened campaigners who broke through in the same class were Willie MacFarlane, the 1925 champion; Freddie McLeod, Willie Hunter, Jim Barnes, Diego, Leach and Golden and not one of them is quite the Jones type. That applied, too, to the group immediately behind Bobby — Joe Turnesa, George Von Elm, Frank Walsh, Billy Burk and Roland Hancock. Good men all but they don't quite belong at the top.

Cubs and Cards Get Pitching

Average Four Hits Apiece as They Split Double.

By Les Conklin.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Hurlers of the Chicago Cubs and St. Louis Cardinals, celebrating the first day of summer in a double-header at Chicago yesterday, unleashed some of the finest pitching ever crowded into one afternoon. Base hits were scarcer than corsets at a senior prom.

Sheriff Blake of the Cubs held the Cardinals to two hits and beat the 1, 2 to 1, although his mates reached the Veteran Clarence Mitchell for only five bingles. In the nightcap the Cubs were limited to three hits by Sylvester Johnson and took a 4 to 1 licking. Johnson's victim was Charlie Root, who suffered his fifth straight defeat.

A paltry total of 17 hits was made by the two teams in the double bill. Hack Wilson hit two singles and a spectator who commented at length upon the Cub outfielder's failure to deliver any home runs recently.

Another Johnson, Yclept Henry, pitched the Yankees to a 4 to 0 victory over left Grove of the Athletics. The A's now trail the Huggins by 9½ games and must win today to get an even break on the series.

The Cardinals lost ground in the National league race as the natty Cincy Reds nosed out the Pirates in the ninth, 5 to 4. Both starting pitchers, Hill and May, took their showers early.

The Braves and Giants broke even. Young Art Delaney's pitching and Rogers Hornsby's two doubles gave the Braves a 3 to 1 win in the second game over Larry Benton, the league's leading pitcher. The McGrawians maulers copped the opener by a 9 to 4 count.

The sprightly Browns two times Detroit, 8 to 3 and 9 to 5.

Big Ed Morris, prize rookie of the Boston Red Sox, toyed with the Senators, winning 9 to 2.

Cleveland trimmed the White Sox, 4 to 2, but Chicago won the second game in the ninth, 4 to 3, when Bill Cissel drove in two runs.

Chester Opposes Steelers

Books Coke Plant Nine for Saturday Game.

F RANK RILEY'S Chester ball club, now scheduling opposition in the independent circuit, will reacquaint themselves with a well-known soup bone, swung by "Lefty" Crandall, of 1927 city league title series fame, in the West Virginians' opening clash under the new order of things, tomorrow afternoon at Smith Field.

The Coke plant club of the Midland Crucible Steel company league, now leading the Steel City circuit, will oppose the Chesterites and Crandall will be pitching against Chester instead of for them.

Crandall slipped into town about a week ago, looking for a baseball assignment. He immediately connected with the Cokers of the Midland loop and will appear in uniform of the Steelers in tomorrow's game. He will work at least part of the Saturday game, Riley announces.

Johnny Evans and Don Stoffel are also playing with the Midlanders. In his tryout lineup Riley plans to use either "Sonny" Desher of Turk Nash or Earl Springer in the box. For his infield he has nominated Cox at first; Connors at second; Les McMath at short; Finley or Simcox at third. In the outfield there will be Campbell, McConnell and G. Cebula.

And last, but not least, Pete Cebula, himself, will don the windpad and spacious glove for duty behind the bat. Green will be the extra infielder. This lineup will be somewhat of a trial, Pilot Riley announces. In later games with stronger clubs, Crandall will be available for pitching.

The contest is scheduled for 3:15.

RAIN WASHES OUT BABE'S 26TH SWAT

NEW YORK, June 22.—George Herman Ruth was nursing a thirty-third degree grouch today. The Bam socked a gorgeous home run into the right field bleachers yesterday in the second game of the Yankee-Athletic double-header, but Homer No. 26 was washed right out of the records when rain stopped the game.

YALE, HARVARD OARSMEN READY

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 22.—America's oldest sporting event, the Harvard-Yale regatta, dating back three-quarters of a century, will tack another chapter to its long history at dusk this evening when the undefeated Harvard varsity crew and all-conquering Yale eight battle through the four-miles of the historic Thames river course in a race which gives promise of being one of the most brilliant in the long string of contests between these ancient rivals.

Chorus Girls Contract Lead Poisoning From
"Make-up."

GENEVA. — Jazz drumming is a dangerous occupation, according to recent reports of the International Labor office of the League of Nations which has been inquiring into the matter.

A special investigation shows that "a neurosis characterized by pain and cramp and a sensation of fatigue and constriction localized in the right knee has been reported in players on the triangle and drums which are set in motion by a pedal.

"Each blow, it is calculated, required an effort of 5 to 12 kilograms, and the artists had to give 180 blows per minute. Von Wurthenau has assembled 62 cases of paralysis among drummers affecting the extension of the distal phalanx of the left thumb."

Chronic tenosynovitis is also said to be a fairly frequent consequence of the way in which the drum sticks are held, setting up mechanical irritation of the tendon of the long extensor of the thumb, and even rupture at the tendon at the moment of paroxysm of rolling.

Another discovery the Labor office made was that chorus girls and theatrical artists who daily use large quantities of "make-up" in the course of their professions very frequently contract lead poisoning, because so many forms of grease-paint have a white-lead basis.

The report warns that actors and actresses who wear wigs that have been used by others are in great danger of baldness and tells of one case where an actress lost all her hair from this cause.

Other diseases which have a high rate of prevalence in stage circles are anaemia, digestive troubles, eyestrain and varicose veins. Dancers very frequently suffer from eye troubles caused by dancing in the rays of the limelight. Dilatation of the heart frequently afflicts players of trombones, saxophones and other wind instruments used in these jazz days.

BOOM IN TOILET ACCESSORIES FOLLOWS DAILY BATHING HABIT

WASHINGTON.—One of America's ancient traditions — the Saturday Night Bath — is being relegated to the archives of memory and in this process from sanitation of the past in developing an important contribution to prosperity.

"In United States the practice of bathing daily instead of weekly has brought about a demand for an enormous variety of powders, salts, soaps and toilet accessories," says a statement prepared by the commerce department.

Whether the belief that the weekly bath is vanishing for more frequent use of soap and water is based upon statistics of the Census Bureau, or the increasing purchases of toilet articles isn't disclosed, but Commerce Department officials are of the firm opinion that the tradition "Saturday Night" is doomed.

More Baths the Better.

The more baths the public takes the better for the toilet preparation industry.

try—bigger sales, more employment, and at least one section of the manufacturing fabric of America pushed into the field of greater profits.

The demand for toilet preparations is increasing in the United States by leaps and bounds, according to officials. Where women are held responsible for the vast boost in cigarette smoking which will amount to close to 100,000,000,000 in 1928, men are partially the cause of the greatest demand for a wide variety of cosmetics, perfumes and tonics.

It appears that the country is producing $200,000,000 worth of toilet preparations and $400,000,000 worth of bath tubs annually. America's foreign trade in these articles runs over $12,000,000 a year.

The modern flapper, all decorated up with paints and powders, is a work of art—and modern man is getting to feel that frequent visits to the hair dressers, the manicurists and facial remodelers helps in his business as well as contributing probably to some source of mild diversion.

Demand Abroad.

Commerce Department experts find a great demand for American-made toilet preparations abroad. American lotions, hair tonics, dentifrices and even freckle removing compounds may be seen on the shelves and in the homes of the far-away countries of the East, Egypt, Arabia, Malaya and the Islands of the South Seas, as well as in the highly competitive markets of Europe.

Even France buys a large supply of toilet articles from the United States.

The warm countries of Cuba and Central and South America furnish markets of easy access for products such as talcum powder, while residents of the colder climates of England and Canada are leading customers for creams, rouges and other preparations. Even in Japan American toilet preparations generally enjoy good reputation, while this country's share in the cosmetic trade of China has steadily increased since the war.

French inventor, Jean de Chappellaine, who has recently produced a little "flying Lizzie", an airplane without wings—in a word the "gyropter."

It has a closed torpedo body and four free wheels. The motor power is supplied by two rotors affixed to the sides like paddle-wheels of a ferryboat. They whirl at the rate of 7000 revolutions per minute, a speed which assures the stability of the air, the rotation of the wheels keeps the machine from falling swiftly. In fact, the inventor says one will alight so softly as any feather.

When automobiles pile up on all sides and there seems to be no way out of the mess, Presto! throw the gears into vertical and take to the air—advises Monsieur Chappellaine. In the very near future, this will be the only way out of traffic trouble.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis or stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little Bisurated Magnesia, and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bisurated Magnesia, to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. Your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bisurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.

VOTERS TO PASS ON BOND ISSUE

France Now Boasts New River Starting From Small Spring

PARIS—France has a new river. It sprang up recently on the property of a farmer in the Oise department, first only a little spring, increasing daily in size until the water started down the sloping farm toward the distant river Esches.

The new stream crossed several roads, passed close to the village of Bont-d'en-Haut and flowed on for several miles before joining the main river. At first it was only a rivulet of muddy water but now the stream is clear and more than seven feet wide.

The new river has every appearance of being here to stay and not the temporary result of recent rains in the vicinity. It has not yet acquired a name.

BRITISH GIRL TO RACE LINER OVER ATLANTIC

Motorboat Speeder Will Seek New Record.

MYSTERY CRAFT Will Start From Irish Coast in October.

LONDON. — Miss M. B. Carstairs, Britain's foremost girl motorboat racer, has definitely decided to attempt time of the fastest water passage of in a speed-boat this year to beat the Atlantic ocean.

She plans to start from the west coast of Ireland some time in October, making a stop at St. John's, Newfoundland, for fresh supplies of oil and gasoline, and then to go on to New York. She is now attempting to engage the services of a male navigator to accompany her on her hazardous adventure.

Try for Record. The Atlantic record is four days, 13 hours, 41 minutes, held by the Cunard liner Mauretania, from New York to Queenstown. Miss Carstairs is credited with the ambition to do the complete trip of 2,335 miles in three and a half days.

The boat she will use is more or less of a "hush hush" character, but details of its construction and power are gradually leaking out. According to reports, the hull is cylindrical, completely enclosed when at sea, and rather like a bottle-necked whale in appearance.

The keel is a "V" in shape to the nose, and extremely flat at the rear. The hull is being made of consueto triple-ply mahogany with an inner hull of light alloy. It is reported that embodied in the construction of the craft is a secret process which makes it practically unsinkable.

To Carry Radio. Radio with a range of 500 miles will be carried, and two small periscopes are being carried for observation and navigation purposes. Seating and sleeping accommodation is provided for four, including two mechanics. The boat will be propelled by two Napier Lion type engines of 450 horsepower each with twin propellers. The gas tank will hold 5,000 gallons.

Miss Carstairs is building two boats in secret to compete in the International Racing Motorboat Trophy on the Detroit river in September.

German Honor Austrian. In celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Rudolph Alexander Schroeder, Austrian lyric poet and friend of Hoffmanns, he was recently created a doctor of philosophy honoris causa by the University of Munich. Dr. Schroeder's work on the highly respected magazine "Hyperion" has won him a large following in Germany and Austria.

Changing the crew while the train is speeding is the latest idea in the non-stop craze that has hit British railroads. One line is having constructed a locomotive tender contain-

DUCHESS, 62, PLANS HOP TO INDIA AND BACK

Fokker Monoplane Will be Used in 8-day
Voyage.

OVERHAULS CRAFT

Secrecy Maintained Regarding Forthcoming Flight.

LONDON.—At the age of 62, the Duchess of Bedford is planning to fly to India and back in the short space of eight days.

The flight, according to present plans, will be made in the Fokker monoplane "Princess Xenia," in which Captain R. H. McIntosh and Major Fitzmaurice started last year on an attempt to fly the Atlantic. The flight was abandoned because of bad weather.

Although secrecy is being maintained regarding the forthcoming flight, it is known that "Princess Xenia" is at Bristol, undergoing a thorough overhauling in preparation for the take-off.

Secret Arrangements.
The Duchess, however, is desirous that the arrangements be kept quiet, and in consequence the date of the projected start has not been made known.

The plane will be piloted by Captain
C. D. Barnard, who for many months back has been giving the Duchess lessons in flying.

The Duchess of Bedford has long been an enthusiastic airwoman. Since 1926 she has made many long flights, and she has commuted many times between her home at Woburn Abbey to the city of London.

Last year the Duchess made a 3,500 mile aerial tour of Europe which included a crossing of the Alps. Earlier in the year she made a trip over France, Spain and Algeria for the purpose of studying birds in the air.

Flew 16,000 Miles.

In all, she has flown more than 16,000 miles.

Although the details of the proposed long-distance flight have not been made known, it is understood that the start will be made from Croydon Aerodrome. It is proposed to make a stop at Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria, with further halts at Aleppo and Bashire before Karachi, the destination, is finally reached. Each of these stages represents about 1200 miles.

Narrative of Love and Struggle Against Temptations

By WINIFRED VAN DUZER

"I'm going to make him love me, Em. You think one could do that? When you love a man so much, so very much that you want to die for him, he's got to love you, hasn't he? With only a little chance—oh, I will! Do that—well, pray for me, Em."

Emily prayed in a blind fashion. "Somewhere out in the immensity—You who are love—give her the little chance. Don't let it all go for nothing, all this she feels— But down in the living room the air was charged as with terrific, opposing currents; it seemed to Emily that love could not live in that swirl of furious emotion.

Steve Brent, watchful and brooding; Mrs. Brent crying; Dottie wide-eyed and sullen. And Skeets waiting in a bored indifference.

He got up, slouching, and stood beside Stella while the clergyman began the marriage service in a matter-of-fact manner. And Emily, at Stella's left, felt a wild desire to cry out that it must stop; that nothing so violent could go on, constitute a sacrament.

She remembered dimly a line she had heard this same clergyman read once; "The cup of fury. . . They shall drink and be mad. . ."

"Stella had done this; Stella and Skeets. Drunk the cup of fury and they were mad. . ."

"Stella, do you take this man, Theodore?"

The bride glanced up, startled. She hadn't even known his name!

Emily recalled another such case where the girl refused to marry the man who betrayed her because, as she said, she wasn't well enough acquainted with him for marriage. Gratitude it seemed then, but now Emily questioned if the girl were not more sane than this one trembling at her side.

Both had committed a grave error but the other had refused to hold to that error for all time to come. That, maybe, was a stancher thing to do.

Yet no third life was involved there. . .

"Whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

It was over. Stella's bag was carried out to the yellow roadster; she kissed her mother and Emily—glanced at her father who didn't raise his head—went away with her husband.

Mrs. Briggs came limping over toward evening. She had dropped a flatiron on her foot and all her troubles were multiplied.

"You'll have heard," she began, "as how the young gentleman will be made much. Sure, they'll all do some stepplin' with the likes of him in office."

"I'd not trust him too far," Agnes objected. "They're alike, all the rich ones."

"Al' there's where you're wrong, begging your pardon, Mrs. Day, dear. That one's a good boy as ever an' he'll show em a thing or two. Didn't I hear him talkin' only the other night how this must stand an' that must go an' a devil take who gets in the way. Like his father an' his grandfather, rest their souls, before him, the young fella is. Blood will tell."

It gave Emily a thrill for once, hearing that. She wanted to get by herself and hold the idea close to her heart; Kent so fine, so unafraid, able to do anything. Kent the magnificent—aristocrat of courage. Onn once he had kissed her, told her she was sweet. . .

But she didn't go away for she hoped Mrs. Briggs might tell more about him.

"And is the sister as nice?" Agnes inquired.

The housekeeper threw up her hands. "There, now! Ah, the creature! Her but a few months ago married and never had a decent word for her man, mind you, an' him pickin' up an' runnin' here an' there till you're askin' did he leave her for good this time or what."

"There's a one is bringing her old father to the grave in sorrow with her goin'-on. Sittin' like a brazen thing with her skirts over her knees an' her cigarettes, a-makin' eyes at the Wickert, bad luck to him!"

There was a crash and Kitten bent over the sink. The glass she had been filling at the tap had slipped from her hand and shattered.

She scraped up the splinters clumsily; presently she slipped out of the room.

Emily kept wondering about it; trying to find a reason for her sister being upset by the story of Avis. She remembered the shock she, herself, had felt when through another of Mrs. Briggs' stories she realized what a sham was Avis' marriage.

Perhaps Kitten, who looked up to women like Avis, was feeling hurt of a broken ideal? Said that would be with the little sister's unbridled nature.

She followed Kitten, expecting to find her weeping in her room. But as she closed the door she saw the red head pressed to the telephone.

Kitten whispered something and jerked up the receiver. Her eyes were green as she fled upstairs.

CHAPTER 33.

The sunroom was finished now and it was even prettier, Emily told herself, than she had expected. All light and blitheness, it seemed always the soft edge of morning within those glowing walls.

There was a winding thread of green in the cushions and hangings; the joyous green of early summer. And the green rugs she had placed about were like woodland moss on the polished floor. A happy room. Even Agnes was pleased with it.

Kitten Coles was invited. He would come a little early as they could have an hour in the sunroom before they went downstairs for dinner. An hour watching the light slide to the far edge of the river and linger on the Tarrytown hills as the sun dropped down the west.

And perhaps if he asked her while they sat there she would set a wedding day. This thought frightened her a little; still there was no use putting it off. For differently, probably, with everything settled and Agnes won over.

Agnes hadn't said much about Marty lately but then he hadn't been dropping in so frequently since he'd been in Judge Morrow's office.

She came home at noon and began to make preparations. There was to be Maryland chicken for dinner after a recipe Frances Hadden had given her and she had to bring this to readiness as well as the dressing for the salad. Agnes did not approve the dressing.

"But you'll eat a little of it, Muz darling? It would look so funny if you didn't."

"You care much what this man thinks, Emmy? I'm a plain old woman; too plain for their grand way."

"Oh, you're not! Nothing too grand for you dear. I want you to have everything."

"Everything's not for some. I mind the time your poor father."

"Dearest, please don't think about that. Just talk of other things tonight, won't you? Just this and that the way people do."

"Well." With a sigh.

Supposing Agnes should start telling King of Steve and her early days with him. Emily could imagine his polite interest, the ennuï behind it.

"Bu, I shouldn't feel so about him," she thought. "The man I'm going to marry—why, I should wish him to meet my people and see my home. Yet I'm all on edge. I don't know—can't understand."

She swept and dusted the living room; there was a moment when she considered taking away the crocheted tidies. But a bit of independence stopped this.

"If he doesn't like me in spite of those he doesn't care enough to marry me. Going to all this bother, feeling so—but I suppose most girls do the same. Natural to want to appear your best."

She had told him the way to the house. "I live on The Hill"—blushing a little. But he didn't know regional distinctions in Lyall; that meant nothing.

Shortly after five she expected him and put on her prettiest frock and brushed her hair till it shone like a nimbus. Then she sat in the sunroom to wait.

It was half past six when she heard his car turning into the street. By this time she was in a fever of nerves; the sunset was all over and their bright hour vanished. Besides the dinner would be spoiled; Agnes had been keeping it warm to the very limit of endurance.

They would have to eat first and sit in the sunroom afterward; she tried to comfort herself with the thought that her lights there gave a lovely glow.

FAMOUS ARTIST'S DAUGHTER, 9, WINS PRAISE FOR PAINTING

BRENTFORD.—A little girl aged 9 at the Old Ford farm, Ashford, Middlesex, is very excited just now. The reason is that an exhibition of her paintings and drawings is now being held in the famous Claridge Gallery, Brook street, in the heart of fashionable London.

Her name is Peggy Somerville. It is not the first time she has exhibited in public. When she was three years old her drawings astonished everybody when they were shown at the Royal Drawing Society's exhibition. More recently she has been an exhibitor at the New Irish Salon.

The strange thing is that her father, Charles Somerville, the artist, has never given her a single lesson. "I have let her go her own sweet way," he said. "I don't believe in destroying individuality."

A fair-haired mite, and very shy, Peggy gives the following order of subjects she likes most to draw and paint:

1. Gypsies.
  2. Cows.
  3. Horses.
  4. Pigs.
- Year by year her cows look more and more bovine, and her gypsies more and more Romany. They cannot look more natural than they do in the opinion of the critics.
- Peggy is a healthy natural child, fond of games and proud of being second in her school class.
